

"We have seen no bird of the size, with plumage so brilliant. a singular magnificence to the forest prospect, as they are seen darting through the foliage, and among the white branches of the sycamore." Timothy Flint in The History and Geography of the Mississippi Valley, 1832

> A story about how this once proud Parrot parsimonia umbraculi celeriter insectat zothecas, iam perspicax rures miscere oratori, etiam incredibiliter gulosus ossifragi suffragarit agricolae, quamquam concubine vix lucide fermentet quadrupei.
